

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. Haynes Light Six Motor

Haynes Light Twelve Motor

The HEART of the NEW HAYNES HAS AN ABUNDANCE of VELVETY POWER

THE Haynes motor has always been an integral part of the Haynes automobile—ever since Elwood Haynes, twenty-seven years ago, created America's first car. A large part of the enviable reputation of the Haynes has been built upon the stamina and dependability of the famous Haynes motor. The Haynes motor is manufactured by experts in the Haynes factories.

Haynes engineers, profiting by twenty-seven years of experience, have from time to time developed improvements to the motor.

Whether it is the Light Six or the Light Twelve motor, it is designed and perfected for its special functions. To secure the fullest power from the gasoline used, to transmit that power most effectively to the driving gear, to respond promptly and surely to the demands made upon it, to live and endure under all manner of usage, and constantly to give that confident, velvety power which is its distinguishing quality—these are the outstanding characteristics of the famous Haynes motor.

The abundance of velvety power of the famous Haynes motor is the keystone of the four factors of character to be found in the new Haynes—beauty, strength, power and comfort. The Haynes car is 90% Haynes made in the mammoth Haynes factories which are devoted to the exclusive manufacture of fine automobiles.

COTUIT MASS.

COTUIT-CAPE COD

MASSACHUSETTS

COTUIT, perhaps the most beautiful shore resort on Cape Cod, is situated on wooded ground overlooking a nearly land-locked harbor that makes in from the waters of Nantucket Sound.

Surrounded by pine woods extending to the water's edge this region is a pleasant contrast to the sand dunes of the lower Cape and to the rock-bound coast to the north. To one who loves the ocean, the delightful bathing in waters free from surf and undertow and the many opportunities for sailing, make an irresistible appeal.

Southwards for miles lie green-clad shores, here indented by the quiet waters of Poponessett Bay and there standing boldly to the sea in bluffs of forty feet in height—a wonderful country only recently made available to the summer home builder, and an opportunity not ordinarily met.

COTUIT INN and Cottages

This is not like the usual summer hotel, but an Inn carrying on the old English significance of the word. Surrounded by natural attractions which carry a strong appeal, its chief charm is—nevertheless—the spirit which pervades it, for Cotuit Inn holds an atmosphere of contended fellowship outgrowing from the exceptional class of people who visit it year after year. C. L. GIFFORD, Prop.
Open May 30 to Sept. 26 Tel. Cotuit 8125

THE PINES and Cottages

A hotel long remembered for its homelike atmosphere; situated on Cotuit Highgrounds. Open June 15th to September 15th; accommodating 125 people and conducted on the American Plan. Private beach with boat landing and bath houses. :: :: C. D. CRAWFORD, Mgr.

A proper consideration for other users of the highway, promotes good feeling and good fellowship. Be considerate and courteous. Don't drive in ruts and avoid making them. If the other fellow is in trouble—help him. The Golden Rule works splendidly in motoring as well as in church and in business.

THE RAVINE HOUSE,*RANDOLPH, N. H.

The Hotel borrows its name from King's Ravine the deepest and boldest of the Presidential Range. This Ravine is directly in front of the House. It is the most picturesque and interesting location in the White Mountains. The great peaks of Madison and Adams are directly in front of the door. This House is comparable to many a well known Inn in Switzerland. There are all kinds of accommodations from suites with baths to sleeping tents in the woods near by. The variety of pleasures and possibilities will surprise and attract anyone desiring life in the open. The Appalachian and Randolph Mountain Clubs maintain over 150 miles of paths leading through valleys and ravines, among brooks and ridges, to waterfalls and summits. The House is open all Winter and no place is better adapted for bracing sports than Randolph, N. H.

Touring Necessities

THE joy of touring has many times been spoiled for both the seasoned tourist and the novice because he has not provided himself with certain accessories and little conveniences which would have been "just the thing" in an emergency. While it is not expected that the tourist should carry all of the things in the following list, he should provide as many as will best fit his needs, taking into consideration the condition of roads, the accessibility of hotels and garages, and particularly the supply stations of the car manufacturers.

Before starting your tour be sure that all tires are in good condition and inflated as directed by the tire company. Tires should be new or in good condition. It would be well to paint all rims with graphite paint to prevent rust and facilitate removal.

The removal of the tire from the rims is usually a tire-some, back-aching and provoking job, particularly when the rim has become rusted. You cannot always wait until you come to a garage to have the work done by a mechanic. The wise motorist will procure a rim tool such as the recommended Greb Tire Remover and Replacer, which will be found entirely satisfactory.

The average tool kit which comes with the car should be supplemented with a set of socket wrenches which may be purchased in a case or convenient bag. These special wrenches are so fitted that there is a place for each one.

Get the best jack you can buy. It will save you trouble and backaches. Get one with either a long handle or a chain, so that it will not be necessary to kneel in the mud to operate the jack. A block of wood 8 inches square and  $1\frac{1}{2}$  inches thick should be carried to put under the jack when the ground is uneven.

A squirt gun filled with a tar-removing fluid is very essential. After you have driven over a freshly oiled, tarred, or bitulithic road, spray the body and chassis, and the oil or tar is quickly removed. The prompt application of such fluid will prevent the spotting of the paint, improves the appearance of the car, and restores the luster of the varnish.

Before you start, see that your tire pump is in perfect condition. There is nothing harder on a motorist than a poor pump, particularly on a hot day—or on a rainy day. Punctures may come at any time and often.

Extra spark plugs should always be carried. See that these plugs and gaskets fit your motor, and do not carry them loose in your tool box. Get a case for them and have each plug tested to see that it sparks properly.

In the matter of clothing, tourists should always be provided with an extra warm suit of underwear and warm socks or stockings, and heavy knit sweater.

Too much cannot be said about carrying the proper clothing on your tour. There is practically no section of this country or Canada where there are not sudden changes in temperature. Even in the south and southwest the nights are decidedly cool. Driving against the wind or at speed causes a chill, and the motorist should be well protected. Automobile race drivers and transcontinental travelers have found that suede cloth and leatherette coats are best suitable for general purposes. Coats, such as the Poledo, will give the best service, will stand the toughest kind of weather, and the hard usages that motoring requires. We have had much experience with the Poledo coats, and the company which manufactures them, and have recommended them to many motorists, always receiving satisfactory reports of their wearing qualities and their general excellent appearance.

A lunch kit will add much to the pleasure of your tour. Often you will find that hotels are not conveniently located, particularly if you start late. They do not take up much room, and a picnic in some shady grove, beside a brook or near the seashore is most enjoyable.

What the A. L. A. Does for its Members

LEGAL DEFENCE.—The Association pays for the services of its attorneys to defend its members, their chauffeurs, or any one operating their pleasure automobiles, anywhere in the New England states when charged with any violation of the automobile laws, traffic rules of cities and towns, or the rules and regulations of Park Commissioners. Members are likewise defended in the same territory if suits are brought against them for damage to property. The Association also pays its attorneys for furnishing its members legal advice in any matter in which they are interested as automobilists.

The above service does not include the defence of its members in suits for personal injuries or when charged with manslaughter or murder, and the membership does not cover the operation of automobiles used to carry passengers for hire or trucks.

This Association does not furnish the services of its attorneys to bring suits or collect bills for its members.

TOURING INFORMATION.—Each member who joins the Association or renews his membership will be furnished with a copy of the A. L. A. Green Book, which is the most complete touring book published. Its detailed running directions cover the New England States thoroughly, and, in addition, the directions over the principal roads in New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and the South.

In addition to the detailed running directions the book contains sectional detail maps showing not only the main roads but also all of the minor or secondary roads covering the whole of New England. Also many maps of New England cities and towns, the list of the Association's attorneys, ferry connections, automobile laws of the Eastern States and pole markings are given, also other maps which enable one to quickly secure the information desired.

The Association's Touring Department is at the service of its members to assist them in planning tours, selecting desirable hotels to stop at, and any other information which they may desire.

The Association has a corps of Road Scouts, which enables it to obtain up-to-date information on road conditions, road construction, detours, etc.

Through The Automobilist the members are kept informed on the latest road conditions, detours and other touring information.

ITS OFFICIAL MAGAZINE.—The Automobilist, the official magazine of the Association, is published monthly, and the membership fee includes subscription to The Automobilist in which many advertisers offer special discounts to members who purchase tires, tubes and supplies of them.

The magazine contains much valuable touring information, new laws, rules and regulations, and such other information as will enable its readers to keep fully abreast of changing conditions.

EMBLEM.—Its handsome nickled and French enamel emblem, which can readily be attached to the radiator, by wires furnished with the emblem, assures courtesies at hotels and garages and along the road that might not otherwise be obtained, and is the insignia of membership in the largest and most influential automobile association in the United States.

CREDIT GUARANTEE.—With each membership there is issued the Association is Credit Guarantee which members may use once during the membership year at any hotel or garage and which will enable them to secure credit up to $25.00.

INSURANCE.—This Association has assisted in organizing a mutual automobile fire, theft and collision insurance company which charges the same rates as other companies, for that class of insurance, and is now returning back to its policy holders, at the end of the policy year, 25% of the premium paid. This return is made in the form of a dividend.

The Association has also assisted in organizing a liability and property damage insurance company, which also charges the same rates as other companies and which is now paying back at the end of the policy year a dividend of 15%.

ANNUAL DUES.—There is no initiation fee and the annual dues of the Association are $5.50 for which nominal sum, the Association offers its member all of the benefits and services enumerated above. There are no additional charges.

This Association was organized twelve years ago and its steady growth and influence are due to the unusual service, courtesy and attention it has been able to render automobilists who have found membership to be a source of profit rather than of expense.

You are cordially invited to avail yourself of the unique service and influential standing of this Association.

The membership fee or a pro rata part of it will be returned to any person who joins the Association through any misunderstanding or misrepresentation on the part of its solicitors.—AUTOMOBILE LEGAL ASSOCIATION.
